Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Communicate in presentational, interpersonal, and interpretive modes in both oral and written discourse.
2. Discuss selected literary and cultural products, practices, and perspectives of the target cultures and the connections among them.
3. Apply critical thinking and collaborative problem-solving abilities through task-based language activities (i.e., oral presentations, summaries, term papers, creative videos, curriculum vitae, reports, note taking, etc.).
